9:00am - 4:30pm TCU Place, Saskatoon, SK

NATIONAL SUMMIT ON THE CONTROL OF AGRICULTURAL INJURIES AND DEATH IN CANADA

Transforming today's science into tomorrow's prevention

The aim of the Summit is to bring together researchers, industry partners, policy makers, knowledge transfer specialists, and producers from across Saskatchewan and Canada to discuss key areas in safety and health in agriculture, and to develop a plan to work towards practical solutions to real life issues affecting the health and safety of producers, agricultural workers, farm families, and rural people.

Please join the Centre's 30th Anniversary Dinner Celebrations immediately following the conclusion of the National Summit at 4:30pm

RSVP by May 31, 2016
